CONNECT WITH GOD:

God knows you and wants you to know Him as God and Savior to receive from Him support, guidance, and peace in this life and assurance of an amazing new life after death. All are welcome here. Sunday services are that place where we come to gather and receive direction and grace. We never want to do things within our services just for the sake of doing them. We will do our best to align with Jesus' invitation to worship in "spirit and in truth".

CONNECT WITH FELLOW BELIEVERS:

As part of our core identity, Redeemer by the Sea is a smaller gathering of people where we are thrilled to be able to get to know each other and care for each other. You will not be able to get "lost in the crowd" here. There are many opportunities to grow spiritually and serve others within the church and we are continually seeking ways to offer effective service to our community and world. If you're ready to know more about these opportunities, contact Kay Boland, at the church office: 760-431-8990 x105, or email: Kay@redeemerbythesea.org.

A reading from Nehemiah chapter 4.

<sup>7</sup> But when Sanballat and Tobiah and the Arabs and the Ammonites and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was going forward and that the breaches were beginning to be closed, they were very angry. <sup>8</sup> And they all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it. <sup>9</sup> And we prayed to our God and set a guard as a protection against them day and night.

<sup>10</sup> In Judah it was said, "The strength of those who bear the burdens is failing. There is too much rubble. By ourselves we will not be able to rebuild the wall." <sup>11</sup> And our enemies said, "They will not know or see till we come among them and kill them and stop the work." <sup>12</sup> At that time the Jews who lived near them came from all directions and said to us ten times, "You must return to us." <sup>13</sup> So in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in open places, I stationed the people by their clans, with their swords, their spears, and their bows. <sup>14</sup> And I looked and arose and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes."

Reader: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel is from Luke 12.

<sup>41</sup> Peter asked, "Lord, is that illustration just for us or for everyone?"

<sup>42</sup> And the Lord replied, "A faithful, sensible servant is one to whom the master can give the responsibility of managing his other household servants and feeding them. <sup>43</sup> If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward. <sup>44</sup> I tell you the truth, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. <sup>45</sup> But what if the servant thinks, 'My master won't be back for a while,' and he begins beating the other servants, partying, and getting drunk? <sup>46</sup> The master will return unannounced and unexpected, and he will cut the servant in pieces and banish him with the unfaithful.

<sup>47</sup> "And a servant who knows what the master wants, but isn't prepared and doesn't carry out those instructions, will be severely punished. <sup>48</sup> But someone who does not know, and then does something wrong, will be punished only lightly. When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.
